

The Digital Millennium Copyright Act of 1998, 17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq. ("DMCA"), provides recourse for owners of copyrighted materials who believe that their rights under United States copyright law have been infringed upon on the Internet. Under the DMCA, the bona fide owner of copyrighted materials who has a good faith belief that their copyright has been infringed may contact not only the person or entity infringing on their copyright, but may also contact the designated agent of an Internet service provider ("ISP") to report alleged infringements of their protected works, when such alleged infringements appear on pages hosted by the ISP.

Peer-Point is committed to complying with all United States laws, including United States copyright law. Upon receipt of a properly filed complaint under the DMCA, Peer-Point will block access to the allegedly infringing material. Peer-Point will forward a copy of the notification of claimed copyright infringement to the alleged infringer. Anyone who believes in good faith that a notice of copyright infringement has wrongfully been filed against them, may submit a Counternotice to Peer-Point. Peer-Point customers who are the subject of a DMCA notification that meets the below criteria may be subject to contract termination at Peer-Point's sole discretion. Peer-Point will not be a party to disputes over alleged copyright infringement.

If you believe that your copyrights have been infringed, or if a notice of copyright infringement has been filed against you, we advise that you seek legal counsel. We are providing the following information to you for informational purposes only.

Notification of Claimed Copyright Infringement

If you believe that a Web page hosted by Peer-Point is violating your rights under U.S. copyright law, you may file a complaint of such claimed infringement with Peer-Point's designated agent in the manner described below.

By Mail:

Peer-Point
Attn: Legal Department
600 Brickell Avenue
Suite 1400
Miami, FL 33131

By Email: abuse@Peer-Point.com

For your complaint to be valid under the DMCA, you must provide the following information when providing notice of the claimed copyright infringement:

- A physical or electronic signature of a person authorized to act on behalf of the copyright owner;
- Identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed;
- Identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing or to be the subject of the infringing activity and that is to be removed or access to which is to be disabled as well as information reasonably sufficient to permit Peer-Point to locate the material;

- Information reasonably sufficient to permit Peer-Point and/or another service provider to contact the complaining party, such as an address, telephone number, and, if available, an electronic mail address;
- A statement that the complaining party has a good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or law; and
- A statement that the information in the notification is accurate, and under penalty of perjury, that the complaining party is authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.

You should be aware that, under the DCMA, claimants who make misrepresentations concerning copyright infringement may be liable for damages incurred as a result of the removal or blocking of the material, court costs, and attorneys fees.

Counter-notification to Claimed Copyright Infringement

If a notice of copyright infringement has been filed against you, you may file a counter-notification with Peer-Point's designated agent at the address listed above. Such counter-notification must contain the following information:

- Physical or electronic signature;
- Identification of the material that has been removed or to which access has been disabled and the location at which the material appeared before it was removed or access to it was disabled;
- A statement under penalty of perjury that you have a good faith belief that the material was removed or disabled as a result of mistake or misidentification; and
- Your name, address, and telephone number, and a statement that you consent to the jurisdiction of the Federal District Court for the Federal District in which you are located, and that you will accept service of process from the complainant.

If Peer-Point receives a valid counter-notification, the DMCA provides that the removed material will be restored, or access re-enabled.

Please be advised that U.S. copyright law provides substantial penalties for a false counter-notice filed in response to a notice of copyright infringement.

Any party seeking to report any other potential violations of this Agreement may contact Peer-Point via email at abuse@Peer-Point.com.
